Key words: Protective clothing, categorisation
Question: Nowadays in the market there is non-fluorescent protective clothing with reflective bands (gardening, maintenance, etc.). What is the categorisation of this clothing (I or II)? If they are in category II, which harmonised standard can we use?
Solution: These are category II products. There is no appropriate harmonised standard, but elements from EN ISO 20471 can be used. The information leaflet shall be clear on the use and the limitations of use. Note: EN 13356 (accessories) should not be used, since clothing is explicitly excluded from the scope
